Declines the Call.

A letter was received from President Edward D. Eaton of Beloit College Friday declining the call which the North church extended him on July 19.

This letter will be read at the prayer meeting this evening.

At Stanley Opera House.

Stanley Opera House will open up Monday evening with "Joshua Simpkins" as the attraction. This company has a fine brass band and a splendid orchestra, and the play is made up of fun and realism. There are seven comedy parts in addition to that of Uncle Josh, which character is a whole show in itself. The character is a whole show in itself. The third act introduces a realistic saw-mill scene, in which an actual saw will saw through real timber. This company comes well recommended throughout.
